

BACHE LYNCH GOLDSMITH
& MENDOZA PLLC

Contact Information:

Frances Lynch, Esq.
520.293.5300

Release Date:

December 19, 2024

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bache & Lynch and Goldsmith & Mendoza Announce Merger

The Merged Firm Will Combine Decades of Personal Injury and Business Litigation Experience

Tucson, Arizona – The founders of Bache & Lynch and Goldsmith & Mendoza P.L.L.C. today announced the merger of their law firms effective January 1, 2025. The new firm will be known as Bache Lynch Goldsmith & Mendoza PLLC and the Firm’s website will be located at <https://blgmlaw.com>.

Bache & Lynch founding attorney Bill Bache commented “This merger will expand our litigation capabilities and representation to include business disputes.” Partner Frances Lynch added “We have had long relationships in the legal community with the attorneys at Goldsmith & Mendoza, and are thrilled to announce the combination of our firms.”

Goldsmith & Mendoza partner Gene Goldsmith offered “The merger will create a more full-service law firm and significantly expand our litigation and personal injury representation.” Partner Pilar Mendoza noted “With this combination, we will be better able to serve Southern Arizona businesses with their commercial litigation needs, and further serve agriculture clients in protecting their financial interests in disputes subject to PACA.”

The merged firm will continue to operate out of their existing Southern Arizona offices, which are located at:

Oro Valley Office

1846 E. Innovation Park Dr.
Oro Valley, AZ 85755

Tucson Location

1670 E. River Rd, Suite 200
Tucson, AZ 85718

Nogales Office

477 W. Crawford St.
Nogales, AZ 85621

About Bache & Lynch

As experienced Tucson personal injury lawyers, Bache & Lynch represent people severely injured and the families of those killed as the result of the negligence of others. They provide compassionate and tenacious representation in seeking full compensation for clients – not one penny less. Firm founders Bill Bache and Frances Lynch each have more that 30 years of personal injury practice.

About Goldsmith & Mendoza P.L.L.C.

Goldsmith & Mendoza provide civil litigation and business dispute representation covering a variety of areas, including contract disputes, complex multiparty litigation, probate disputes, employment litigation, and shareholder and owner disputes. The firm also represents personal injury clients and governmental entities, as well as clients in the fresh produce and agriculture industry by protecting their financial interests in matters subject to the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act (or “PACA”).

####